South Holland Master Chorale

Professional Sound, Community Spirit!

2025-2026 Sing Out My Soul

Innovative Community Collaboration: Educating, Inspiring & Connecting

Artistic Collaboration

Singers performed with

- Foreigner, the legandary rock band, at the Hammond Horseshoe Casino (8/15)
- Grand Prairie Choral Arts Singers & Bel Canto Chorus for the 2nd World Sing Day (10/18)
- Chicago Gargoyle Brass Ensemble for the Chorale's holiday concerts (11/30 & 12/7)

Community Partnership

The Chorale joined other South Holland community organizations in supporting the Village's Coming Together 2030 strategic plan for building a vibrant, connected commmunity in South Holland. SHMC Music Director Philip Bauman participated in a video promotion for the project.

Community Engagement

Between concerts, the Chorale shared musical joy around South Holland, including at Arden Courts (9/27), at ECHO School (12/10), and at the Village's Memorial Day (May 25) and Juneteenth (6/20) celebrations at Veterans Park.

Vision

The South Holland Master Chorale will be a diverse welcoming community of singers that uses the power of music to heal, enrich and inspire.

Mission

The South Holland Master Chorale will use musical performance and innovative community collaboration to inspire, connect, and educate, enhancing the quality of life for all.

Singing With Passion

Chorale members come from cities and villages from Chicago to Kankakee and from Orland Park to South Bend, Indiana.

- The Chorale's new promotional video gives viewers a visual introduction to the group and provides upcoming concert information.
- Chorale members contributed to a silent auction at its December holiday party that raised more than $2,000 for the organization.
- The Saints, a non-profit, volunteer organization serving the Chicagoland performing arts community, provided ushers at the Chorale's concerts.
- The Chorale welcomed two new arts organization affiliations: National Endowment for the Arts and Cook County Arts.
